

The Philadelphia PGA is excited to announce the hiring of Brian Schulte as Junior Golf Director. Schulte, a graduate of the Coastal Carolina PGM program, was elected as a Class A Professional this past January. Prior to being hired as Junior Golf Director, Schulte had served as an intern for both the Philadelphia and Carolinas Sections.

Looking forward to his first season Schulte has made some tremendous strides for the Junior Tour. This season the Junior Tour will be holding their first Parent/Junior event as well as multiple series events which will be ranked on the Junior Golf Scoreboard. Additionally, Schulte has extended the Junior Tour season to include events on weekends in both the Spring and Fall.

For more information please visit, www.phillyjuniortour.com.

The Philadelphia PGA will once again return to Las Vegas for the first Pro-Am of the season. This year's trip will run from March 17-20 and will be highlighted by a stay at the world renowned Bellagio Hotel and Casino. The trip will feature four tournament rounds of golf at some of the best courses in Las Vegas, including Cascata, Bear's Best, Reflection Bay, and The Falls.

The second annual Victory Golf Show will be held February 29 – March 2, 2008 at the Valley Forge Convention Center. Some highlights for the 2008 show will be an expanded demo and teaching range. Section professionals will be providing free instruction throughout the last two days of the show. Last year's show was able to raise over $25,000 for several local charities.

For more information please visit, www.phillygolfshow.com.

-- Joe Monforto