

Section 6.08. Removal by the Members. The entire Board of Directors, or a class of the Board of Directors, where the Board of Directors is classified with respect to the power to select Directors, or any individual Director, may be removed from office without assigning any cause by the vote of members entitled to cast at least a majority of the votes which all members present would be entitled to cast at any annual or other regular election of the Directors or of such class of Directors. In case the Board of Directors or such a class of the Board of Directors or any one or more Directors is so removed, new Directors may be elected at the same meeting.
