

Stewart Returns to Winning Form at Waynesborough

Paoli, P.A. – On Monday, June 19, Waynesborough Country Club played host to the Waynesborough Classic with 36 PGA Assistant Professionals from around the Philadelphia Section competing in an 18 hole individual stroke play event.

For the second consecutive week good scores were hard to find as almost the entire field was over par. Carson Solien (Aronimink Golf Club) made three birdies on the day; however a triple bogey on the 7th hole dropped him back to two shots over par for the day (73). Jeff Herb (Waynesborough Country Club) was the only player to eagle the par 5 (15th hole) in route to his round of two over par (73). Peter Clarke carded three bogeys and one biride as he also posted two over par (73). All scores were over par until Brian Bergstol (Shawnee Inn and Golf Resort) posted even par (71) as he posted two birdies and two bogeys.

Waynesborough Country Club proved to be a tough course as only one player could break par. Billy Stewart (ACE Club) carded four birdies and two bogeys posting the only under par score of the day at two under par (69). Stewart made his return to competitive golf this year after nearly a year removed due to a shoulder injury. Congratulations to Billy Stewart for capturing your first win of the 2017 season at the Waynesborough Classic!

The PAO would like to thank our tournament sponsor, Scott Hutchinson for his continued support as well as the host professional, Adam Brigham. Lastly, thank you to Chris Crowley and Signs By the Sea for our trophies.
