

Section 13.01 Player of the Year Major Point Tournament Criteria

the Haverford Trust Company player of the year award is given each year to the player who has amassed the largest number of points through his play in a given season. In order to be eligible for this award, contestants must meet the following criteria:

- i. Must be a Philadelphia Section PGA Member or Apprentice
- ii. Must be eligibly employed within the Philadelphia Section
- iii. Must be in good standing with the PGA of America

The tournament committee shall determine the list of official major tournaments prior to the season using the following criteria:

- (A) The tournament committee shall determine the list of official major tournaments prior to the season using the following criteria:
 - (I) Major events: open exclusively to all Philadelphia section PGA members, apprentices, and pre-apprentices
 - (II) Any "invitational" or other event designated by the tournament committee, which is open to a minimum of seventy-five Philadelphia members, apprentices and pre-apprentices, or
 - (III) Any "invitational" or other event designated by the tournament committee, in which a minimum of twenty Philadelphia members, apprentices and pre-apprentices receive invitations according to the current or prior years player of the year points standing
 - (IV) Championships of the Philadelphia section PGA and other allied golf associations including GAP, NJSGA, PSGA and DSGA.
 - (V) Northern, southern, eastern and western bonus tournaments suggested criteria:
 - I. Events with purses exceeding $20,000
 - I. Annual repeating tournaments
 - II. Tournaments with strong field strengths
 - I. Multiple round tournaments
 - I. Individual scores only (not a team competition).