Celtic Golf has been arranging golf vacations to the legendary courses of Ireland for decades, and we are eager to show you golf like you have never played before.

Firm, fast, buffeted by winds off the Atlantic, the treeless fairways of the links courses have humbled the best. Playing golf in Ireland is a memory you will cherish for the rest of your life.

Whether you want us to create a private vacation for your family, friends, colleagues or country club, or you want to attend a world-renowned golf tournament and combine it with your own play, Celtic Golf will customize the perfect golf vacation for you.
