

Brett Nelson – Bio:

Brett is entering his seventh season at Moselem Springs Golf Club. He was an assistant professional for five seasons before being named Head Professional in 2016. He grew up in Lancaster, Pennsylvania and played a variety of sports growing up before concentrating on golf during college. Brett started in the golf business as an apprentice at Radnor Valley Country Club outside of Philadelphia. His other stops include being an assistant at Blue Ridge Country Club in Harrisburg, Pennsylvania and Berkshire Country Club in Reading, Pennsylvania. He has also worked at the Ocean Reef Club during one winter in Key Largo, Florida. He graduated from Cairn University in 2005 with a degree in Education. Brett is a member of the PGA of America and teaches players of all abilities. He enjoys running golf tournaments and mentoring young interns and assistants.