

Eric Kennedy's – Bio

Eric Kennedy has served as Head Golf Professional at Overbrook Golf Club for the past 10 years.

Throughout Eric's career, he has been fortunate to work with and been mentored by some of the finest golf professionals in the country, including Rob Bostic from Eric's hometown of Waynesboro, PA. Eric credits Secession Golf Club's Michael Harmon, the 2006 PGA Bill Strausbaugh Award winner as the largest influence on his career and considers Mike a mentor and role model for all golf professionals in the industry.

Previously, Eric has the recipient of the 2014 Philadelphia Section Bill Strausbaugh Award.

During his time at Overbrook, Eric has served the Philadelphia PGA, most recently as District VI Director. Eric also serves on the Section's Teaching Committee, Tournament Committee, Disciplinary Committee and, the Awards Committee.

Eric would like to thank the members of Overbrook Golf Club for embracing Eric and his family for the past eight years and making Philadelphia home. It is truly the best job in all of golf. Eric would also like to thank his amazing staff, specifically Lisa Boyle his shop manager.

Lastly, Eric would like to thank his beautiful wife Kelly and their daughter Emerson for their continued love and support, Emmy is the light of Eric's life
